LITURGY OF THE WORD

FIRST READING | Ezekiel 37: 13-14

RESPONSORIAL PSALM | Ps. 130: With the Lord There is Mercy

1. Out of the depths I cry to you, O Lord; Lord, hear my voice!
   O let your ears be attentive to the sound of my pleadings.

2. If you, O Lord, should mark iniquities, Lord, who would stand?
   But with you is found forgiveness, that you may be revered.

3. I long for you, O Lord, my soul longs for his word.
   My soul hopes in the Lord more than watchmen for daybreak. Let Israel hope in the Lord.

4. For with the Lord there is mercy, in him is plentiful redemption.
   It is he who will redeem Israel from all its iniquities.

SECOND READING | Romans 8: 8-11

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION | Mass of Christ, Light of the Nations

GOSPEL | John 11: 1-45

HOMILY
Nicene Creed

I believe in one God,
the Father almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all things visible and invisible.
I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,
the Only Begotten Son of God,
born of the Father before all ages.
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.
For us men and for our salvation
he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary and became man.
For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate,
he suffered death and was buried,
and rose again on the third day
in accordance with the Scriptures.
He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.
I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son,
who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified,
who has spoken through the prophets.
I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.
I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come.
Amen.

Presentation of the Gifts | God Weeps with Us Who Weep and Mourn

Moshér

1. God weeps with us who weep and mourn, God’s tears flow down with ours, The weight of bearing the burden of our hearts.
2. Through tears and sorrow, God, we share A sense of your vast grief; And God’s own heart is bruised and worn. From all the heavy hours Of every prayer, For all the heavy relief, While watchful of the soul’s bright fire. Burned with your tears, Our hearts will taste The lower day by day, And as our friends and doubts that they engage, And the pulse and breath and deep, dear core of things From which both life and love’s desire Dimmed down to ash and clay.
3. And yet, because, like us, you weep, We trust you will receive And in your tender heart will keep The ones for whom we grieve, While loved ones die, Our hopelessness and rage. death are graced By love’s renewing springs.

Eucharistic Prayer

◆ The Lord be with you.
All: And with your spirit.
◆ Lift up your hearts.
All: We lift them up to the Lord.
◆ Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
All: It is right and just.
HOLY, HOLY | Mass of the Angels and Saints

Steven R. Janco

MEMORIAL ACCLAMATION | Mass of the Angels and Saints

Steven R. Janco
The Lord’s Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name; thy kingdom come; thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us; and lead us not into temptation but deliver us from evil.

For the kingdom, the power, and the glory are yours now and forever. Amen.

Spiritual Communion

It is a long-held Catholic belief that when circumstances prevent one from receiving Holy Communion, it is possible to make an “Act of Spiritual Communion.” When we are unable to be physically present at the celebration of the Eucharist, Pope Francis invites Catholics to say this prayer as a source of grace. We can be assured that when we express our desire to receive Jesus in the Eucharist, God will be with us spiritually in a special way. Here is an Act of Spiritual Communion that we encourage you to pray as you participate in our live-streamed liturgies:

Act of Spiritual Communion

Loving Jesus, I believe that you are present in the Most Holy Sacrament of the Eucharist. I love you above all things, and I desire to receive you into my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive you sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace you as if you were already there and unite myself wholly to you. Never permit me to be separated from you. Amen.
COMMUNION MEDITATION | When Jesus Wept
Ruth Elaine Schram

When Jesus wept, the falling tear in mercy flowed beyond all bound.
When Jesus groaned, a trembling fear seized all the guilty world around.

In agony, pain and agony, great teardrops flowing down,
our Savior’s head was adorned with a thorny crown.
The tears that flowed down His holy face will wash away all our fear and replace it with mercy and grace.
CONCLUDING RITES

★ The Lord be with you.
All: And with your spirit.

★ May almighty God bless you, the Father, (+) and the Son and the Holy Spirit.
All: Amen.

★ Go forth, the Mass is ended.
All: Thanks be to God.

Welcome to Saint Cecilia Parish, a Roman Catholic community that gathers day by day, week by week, to know and make known the grace of God. By means of this abundant grace, we enjoy a diverse and close-knit parish family—young, old, rich, poor, of various ethnic origins and differing backgrounds. From our extraordinary music program to a growing children’s faith formation program; from the various liturgical ministries to the many opportunities for social outreach that the parish provides, Saint Cecilia is a vibrant community of faith, centered on prayer and worship that tries to keep the Gospel close to heart and to live by Jesus’ teachings.

Saint Cecilia Parish was established in 1888. At that time the Back Bay section of Boston along Commonwealth Avenue and Beacon Street was the residential section of the Yankee aristocracy. The maids (“Irish working out girls”) and coachmen who served these residents had long requested a church of their own. When Archbishop Williams granted their request and carved the parish from the territory of the Cathedral, they built a magnificent church out of their meager earnings. Our church building resides on the ancestral homeland of the Pawtucket and Massachusett tribal nations.

The church was dedicated on April 22, 1894. Its architecture is Romanesque, XII Century Norman. The main altar, notable for its massive simplicity, was carved from a single block of white Carrara marble. The painting in the center reredos is a reproduction of da Vinci’s The Last Supper, and the dome above is an array of 24K gold rosettes.

For the sixtieth anniversary celebration in 1954, a massive renovation project was undertaken. During this renovation, a statue of Pope Saint Pius X (canonized that same year) was imported from Italy and placed on the right side of the sanctuary. Above the statue are paintings from Pius’ life. On the left side is a statue of Saint Patrick, principal patron of the Archdiocese of Boston, and above it are three scenes from his life.

Fourteen circular and sixteen square panels adorn the nave and arches of the church. The square panels are decorated with the symbols of Our Lady taken from the Litany of Loreto and the circular ones with symbols taken from the lives of the apostles. The great window of the Assumption—framed by the two oak cases of the organ—was installed in 1954 (the Marian Year) in spaces originally designed for windows but not until then used.

The original organ of 24 stops was built in 1902 by the Hutchings-Votey Organ Company, Opus 1465, and was rebuilt in 1954 with 32 stops. In 1998, Timothy Smith and Theodore Gilbert began a massive reconstruction of the organ. The current Smith & Gilbert Organ of 4 manuals, 54 ranks, and 3,084 pipes was dedicated on the Feast of Saint Cecilia, November 22, 1999.

Today we are experiencing something of an awakening within these old walls. Our numbers are increasing by 350 new households each year, and we continue to grow in our commitment to issues of peace, justice, and service to our neighbors, both near and far.

We’ve been right here on Belvidere Street, in the same building for over 125 years, but that does not mean that life here is stale, stagnant, or even predictable. We are proud to be entrusted with the legacy of Saint Cecilia Parish, where everything is the same, yet always changing; where we honor tradition while embracing the future; where God’s love makes all things new.

Lenten Wednesdays—Mass & Reconciliation
On all the Wednesday evenings of Lent (March 1, 8, 15, 22, and 29; April 5) we will celebrate Mass in the sanctuary at 6:00. Following Mass, confessions will be heard until 8:00 for anyone who wishes to celebrate the sacrament. HUNGER & HOMELESSNESS MINISTRY: DRIVERS NEEDED

Each weekend, parishioners have the opportunity to pick up donated meat, dairy products, prepared foods, and produce from four local supermarkets and deliver it to either Catholic Charities’ Haitian Multi-Service Center in Dorchester or the Huntington Y’s Families in Transition program. This vital ministry takes place at 8:00 a.m. every Saturday and Sunday morning, and on Sundays can be completed in time to attend or watch the 9:30 a.m. parish Mass. We need drivers for all the Saturdays and Sundays in March and April. Please email Mark.Lippolt@gmail.com if you would like more information about how you can help.

“LAZARUS, COME OUT!”
Help the Children and Families Helped by Catholic Charities' Food Pantry in Dorchester

As you may know, the Catholic Charities’ Yawkey Center in Dorchester also operates an infant and young child's daycare center. Two years ago, the pantry received a donation from a 4-year-old parishioner who sent cake mix through Amazon so that one of the families who receive assistance from Catholic Charities could make a birthday cake. That has sparked an interest in creating a "Birthday Pantry" within the food pantry so that families in need can have some of the items needed to have a birthday celebration for their children.

Here is the Catholic Charities' Amazon Wish List: https://www.amazon.com/hz/wishlist/ls/2VUJI5Q0QS3P9?ref=wv_share

Most of the items are reasonably priced and we hope that, by everyone doing just a little, we can turn this 4-year-old’s generosity into an ongoing program. Let’s see if we can amplify young Owen’s giving by adding to it in the next week. If you send an item through Amazon, consider putting in a note saying, “Great idea, Owen!”

Wisdom & Mature Spirituality

The Wisdom and Mature Spirituality Group is reading Fr. Greg Boyle’s latest book, Forgive Everyone Everything. Greg Boyle, SJ is the founder of Homeboy Industries, the largest gang rehabilitation and re-entry program in the world. The organization supports 10,000 men and women annually as they work to overcome their pasts, reimagine their futures, and break the intergenerational cycles of gang violence. This book is a powerful collection of Fr. Greg’s most poignant writings based on decades of experiences of loss and pain, redemption, and renewal. The Wisdom and Mature Spirituality Group is always happy to welcome new members who are in the second half of life. The group meets on the first Sunday of the month in the parish Community Room following the 11:30 liturgy. On the other Sundays of the month, they meet at 8:30 on Sunday mornings via Zoom. Whether on Zoom or in person, the meetings provide a space for participants to discuss what the group is reading and to have conversations that deepen their spiritual lives, help create friendships, and respond to the Spirit's promptings regarding social justice issues. Feel free to drop in on any first Sunday or, to get the link for one of the Zoom meetings, please email Deb Garcia at sc.wisdomandmaturespirituality@gmail.com.
Humanity is at a critical crossroads.

The omnipresent nuclear danger. The climate crisis. Perpetual wars. Worsening tensions between the U.S. and Russia and China. Countless people worldwide continue to experience the effects of the pandemic and suffer and die daily from war, poverty and economic exploitation, environmental devastation, racial injustice, mass shootings and other acts of violence.

Today, Pope Francis asserts, we are living through a "Third World War"—one that is being fought piecemeal. More than 110 armed conflicts are currently taking place across the globe.

In calling for an end to the arms trade that help fuel these conflicts and in which the U.S. plays a leading role, Francis stated in his 2015 speech to the U.S. Congress: "Why are deadly weapons sold to those who would inflict untold suffering on individuals and society? Sadly, the answer, as we all know, is simply for money: money that is drenched in blood, often innocent blood."

On January 24, the Bulletin of the Atomic Scientists set the iconic Doomsday Clock to 90 seconds before midnight, the closest to global catastrophe it has ever been. This is due to the existential threats of nuclear war and the climate crisis, the mounting dangers of the Ukraine war, bio-threats and nuclear proliferation.

Regarding the climate crisis, United Nations Secretary-General Antonio Guterres asserted in February: "We must act decisively ... we must end the merciless, relentless, senseless war on nature ... 2023 is a year of reckoning. It must be a year of game-changing climate action."

Regarding the nuclear crisis, humanity is on the brink of nuclear catastrophe due to deteriorating relations between the U.S. and Russia. Tension between those nations have been exacerbated by NATO expansion in eastern Europe, the deployment of U.S. nuclear weapons in five European countries and U.S./NATO missile defense systems that ring Russia, and the tragic Russian invasion of Ukraine.

While the U.S. has always maintained a "first-use" nuclear weapons policy, Russia has said it would consider using nuclear weapons if it feels endangered by increased U.S. and NATO intervention in the Ukraine war. The U.N.'s Guterres has stated that "humanity is just one misunderstanding, one miscalculation away from nuclear annihilation."

Let us never forget that the U.S. is the only country ever to have used nuclear weapons. The U.S. has never repented for and apologized to Japan for the atomic bombings of Hiroshima and Nagasaki in 1945, criminal acts that ushered in the nuclear age.

Jesus commands his followers for all time to love, put away the sword and never to kill. On the cross, as Jesus is undergoing the most excruciating form of death imaginable, he gives witness to a new way to live and respond to unspeakable violence. He embodies what it means to love one's enemies by asking God to forgive those who were killing him.

His nonviolent example on the cross marks a turning point in human history. Through his cross and resurrection, Jesus has forever overcome the forces of violence, sin and death and inaugurated a new nonviolent era for humanity. Jesus' self-emptying unconditional love is the cornerstone of Gospel nonviolence.

While growing numbers of followers of Jesus pursue the way of Gospel nonviolence, many Catholics and Christians are either directly or indirectly involved in military conflicts, support political and economic systems of domination and oppression, or endorse the existence and threatened use of nuclear weapons purportedly to protect national security interests.

Many justify the existence of nuclear weapons despite the fact that Francis has stated that the possession of nuclear weapons is immoral and that the U.N. Treaty on the Prohibition of Nuclear Weapons, or TPNW, deems nuclear weapons illegal.

In our society and world, war, killing, and violence have tragically become the norm. In the 20th century, at least 108 million people were killed in wars. Since then, countless people have been killed and injured in wars and conflicts. And so many more have suffered and died early deaths because of money and resources that were wasted on weapons and war instead of meeting urgent human needs.

How many more people will suffer and die because of war, systemic oppression and other acts of violence?

What would happen if all followers of Jesus were totally committed to living out his command to love their neighbor and their enemies? What if they practiced Gospel nonviolence?

As I have pondered and prayerfully reflected on this question, I acknowledge my own shortcomings and complicity in the culture of violence. I recognize what more I need to do to practice Jesus’ way of nonviolence.

Many people, past and present, have powerfully exemplified the meaning of Gospel nonviolence and can be important guides for us now. Among them are St. Francis and St. Clare of Assisi, Ben Salmon, Franz Jagerstatter, Martin Luther King Jr., Dorothy Day, and Phil and Dan Berrigan.

Numerous national and global organizations also actively promote nonviolence and are involved in nonviolent campaigns for social, racial and environmental justice, upholding human rights, and abolishing nuclear weapons and war.

If followers of Jesus totally subscribed to Gospel nonviolence, these are just some of the things that would occur, and in fact, already are being practiced today by many of Jesus’ followers:

They would not kill, exploit, oppress or harm one another. They would renounce white supremacy, racial profiling, police violence against African Americans and people of color and declare that Black Lives Matter.

They would not make, use or sell any weapons, including handguns, killer drones and nuclear weapons.

They would refuse to be part of any military, or follow a government law or decree that would require them to kill, torture, oppress and wage war.

They would renounce the just war doctrine and embrace the way of just peace.

They would practice the works of mercy, welcome the immigrant and actively work to create a social order based on respect for human rights and the common good, proclaim a jubilee where all debts are canceled, and establish social, economic, racial and environmental justice.

They would call for the U.S. government to make just reparations to American Indians, African Americans and to all its victims of violence, war-making and occupation, including in Iraq (March 19 marks the 20th anniversary of the start of the U.S.-led invasion) and Afghanistan.

They would adopt a simple lifestyle, actively work to end greenhouse gas emissions, keep fossil fuels and carbon in the ground, promote renewable energy and sustainable transportation, and develop an equitable low-carbon economy.

They would actively work to stop exorbitant military spending (the U.S. government will spend $858 billion on the 2023 defense budget and proceed with an estimated $1.7 trillion nuclear modernization program over the next several decades), and demand the transfer of these funds to provide health care, meaningful work, affordable housing, food, clean water, education for all the world’s poor.

They would advocate for the economic conversion of all weapons plants and facilities to make products that serve life and protect the environment.

They would actively work to get the U.S. and the other eight nuclear nations and 32 nuclear weapons endorsing nations to ratify the TPNW, already ratified by 68 nations.

They would actively work, without considering the cost, to be, as Francis states, "the conscience of peace," to make God’s reign of love, justice and peace a reality and to create the beloved community.

The hibakusha (Japanese nuclear bombing survivors) plead to the world: "Humanity and nuclear weapons cannot coexist."
Dorothy Day declares: "Love is not the starving of whole populations. Love is not the bombardment of open cities. Love is not killing; it is the laying down of one's life for one's friends."

Jesuit Fr. Daniel Berrigan asserts: "Our plight is very primitive from a Christian point of view. We are back where we started. Thou shalt not kill. Everything today comes down to that—everything."

Martin Luther King Jr. exhorts: "Our only hope today lies in our ability to recapture the revolutionary spirit and go out into a sometimes-hostile world declaring eternal hostility to poverty, racism and militarism." He says: "Love even for enemies is the key to the solution to the problems of our world."

Pope Francis states: "Abolish war now, before war erases humanity from history."

To help foster a deeper commitment to Gospel nonviolence, peace, and justice during this holy season of Lent and beyond, one can consider a range of actions, including taking the vow of nonviolence; becoming actively involved in one or more of the organizations listed here; and, together with others from your church and area, engaging in regular acts of nonviolent public witness and resistance.

Global catastrophe can be averted if enough people act to prevent it. Social transformation can occur and, in fact, is happening, little by little, in many places. The victims and people worldwide cry out for justice and peace!

For followers of Jesus, Lent is a time for personal and societal repentance, radical conversion, renewal and transformation. It is an opportunity, as St. Oscar Romero reminds us, to be "transfigured" into people of God.

Inspired by the Holy Cloud of Witnesses, let us strive to live and act in the biblical hope that "all things can be done for the one who believes" (Mark 9:23) and that "nothing will be impossible with God!" (Luke 1:37)

Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA)
The Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults is the communal process through which non-baptized men and women become members of the Catholic Church. It is also suitable for those baptized in different faith traditions who are interested in becoming Catholic, or, for those who were baptized Catholic, but have yet to receive the sacraments of Eucharist and confirmation.

Care of the Sick
To arrange for the Sacrament of the Sick, for Holy Communion to be brought to those unable to attend the Sunday celebration, or for Viaticum for the Dying (Holy Communion for those in danger of death), please contact the Parish Office. It is always possible to anoint the sick during regularly scheduled liturgies.

Child Abuse Prevention (CAP) Team
The CAP Team is responsible for training all parish staff and volunteers in mandated reporting laws and the Protecting God's Children program (VIRTUS). They also provide consultation and support to anyone in the parish who has concerns about reporting child abuse and neglect. Please contact Lois Flaherty (loisflaherty@gmail.com), Maria Roche (maria.roche15@gmail.com), Letitia Howland (.l_howland@hotmail.com), or Erin Young (erin.t.young@gmail.com) if you have any questions or concerns.

The Archdiocese of Boston has in place a vigorous program to protect children from harm and to educate its ministers and faithful about the nature of abuse, with a goal of increasing knowledge, creating a safe environment for children, and recognizing and reporting potentially dangerous situations. The full text of the policy is also available in the narthex and Parish Office, as well as on our website.

For Those with Celiac Disease

We're happy that you're with us! Our community offers a warm, spiritual home for a diverse group of Catholics. We come from many neighborhoods in and around Boston, but also have long distance parishioners from around the country and around the world. If you are local, please introduce yourself to a staff member or drop in for coffee on Sunday. We invite both local and long distance individuals and families to fill out a new parishioner form on our website.
