The Fourth Sunday of Easter
30 April 2023

Stained glass at St. John the Baptist Anglican Church, Ashfield, New South Wales
ENTRANCE PROCESSION | There’s a Wideness in God’s Mercy

There’s a wideness in God’s mercy
Like the wideness of the sea;
There’s a kindness in God’s justice
Of the mind; And the heart of the Eternal

Which is more than liberty,
Is most wonderful kindness.
If our love were full redemption,
But more faithful, we should rest up on God’s word;

And our lives would be thanks giving
And mercy with the Savior,
In the sorrows of the Head.
For the goodness of our Lord.

1. There’s a wideness in God’s mercy
Like the wideness of the sea;
Which is more than liberty,

2. For the love of God is broader
Than the measures of the mind;
Is most wonderful kindness.

3. Troubled souls, why will you scatter
Like a crowd of frightened sheep?
From a love so true and deep?

4. Foolish hearts, why will you wander
In the blood that has been shed;
For the sinner, And more graces for the good;

5. There is joy for all the members
And our lives would be thanks giving
In the sorrows of the Head.

6. For the goodness of our Lord.
There is healing in his blood.
CALL TO WORSHIP

* In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit.
  All: Amen.

* The Lord be with you.
  All: And with your spirit.

MEMORIAL ACCLAMATION | Mass of the Angels and Saints

Steven R. Janco
THE LORD’S PRAYER
Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name; thy kingdom come; thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us; and lead us not into temptation but deliver us from evil. For the kingdom, the power, and the glory are yours now and forever. Amen.

SPIRITUAL COMMUNION
It is a long-held Catholic belief that when circumstances prevent one from receiving Holy Communion, it is possible to make an “Act of Spiritual Communion.” When we are unable to be physically present at the celebration of the Eucharist, Pope Francis invites Catholics to say this prayer as a source of grace. We can be assured that when we express our desire to receive Jesus in the Eucharist, God will be with us spiritually in a special way. Here is an Act of Spiritual Communion that we encourage you to pray as you participate in our live-streamed liturgies:

ACT OF SPIRITUAL COMMUNION
Loving Jesus, I believe that you are present in the Most Holy Sacrament of the Eucharist. I love you above all things, and I desire to receive you into my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive you sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace you as if you were already there and unite myself wholly to you. Never permit me to be separated from you.
Communion Meditation | Psalm 23

You satisfy the hungry heart
With gift of finest wheat;
Come give to us, O saving Lord,
The bread of life to eat.

1. As when the shepherd calls his sheep, They know and heed his voice;
   They praise and gratitude, That you should count us
   blood of Christ out-poured?

2. With joyful lips we sing to you Our praise and gratitude, That you should count us blood of Christ out-poured?

3. Is not the cup we bless and share The mortal tongue can tell:
   Whom all the world can - self - less let us be, To serve each other

4. The mystery of your presence, Lord, No family, Lord, We follow and rejoice.
   We follow and rejoice.

5. You give yourself to us, O Lord; Then worthy, Lord, To share this heav’nly food.
   worthy, Lord, To share this heav’nly food.

Music in this worship aid is printed with permission under Onelicense.net #A700-137.

For information on becoming involved or supporting the music program at Saint Cecilia, please contact Dr. Robert Duff at 617-536-4548 or email: RDUff@stceciliaboston.org.
Welcome to Saint Cecilia Parish, a Roman Catholic community that gathers day by day, week by week, to know and make known the grace of God. By means of this abundant grace, we enjoy a diverse and close-knit parish family—young, old, rich, poor, of various ethnic origins and differing backgrounds. From our extraordinary music program to a growing children’s faith formation program; from the various liturgical ministries to the many opportunities for social outreach that the parish provides, Saint Cecilia is a vibrant community of faith, centered on prayer and worship that tries to keep the Gospel close to heart and to live by Jesus’ teachings.

Saint Cecilia Parish was established in 1888. At that time the Back Bay section of Boston along Commonwealth Avenue and Beacon Street was the residential section of the Yankee aristocracy. The maids (“Irish working out girls”) and coachmen who served these residents had long requested a church of their own. When Archbishop Williams granted their request and carved the parish from the territory of the Cathedral, they built a magnificent church out of their meager earnings. Our church building resides on the ancestral homeland of the Pawtucket and Massachusett tribal nations.

The church was dedicated on April 22, 1894. Its architecture is Romanesque, XII Century Norman. The main altar, notable for its massive simplicity, was carved from a single block of white Carrara marble. The painting in the center reredos is a reproduction of da Vinci’s The Last Supper, and the dome above is an array of 24K gold rosettes.

For the sixtieth anniversary celebration in 1954, a massive renovation project was undertaken. During this renovation, a statue of Pope Saint Pius X (canonized that same year) was imported from Italy and placed on the right side of the sanctuary. Above the statue are paintings from Pius’ life. On the left side is a statue of Saint Patrick, principal patron of the Archdiocese of Boston, and above it are three scenes from his life.

Fourteen circular and sixteen square panels adorn the nave and arches of the church. The square panels are decorated with the symbols of Our Lady taken from the Litany of Loreto and the circular ones with symbols taken from the lives of the apostles. The great window of the Assumption—framed by the two oak cases of the organ—was installed in 1954 (the Marian Year) in spaces originally designed for windows but not until then used.

The original organ of 24 stops was built in 1902 by the Hutchings-Votey Organ Company, Opus 1465, and was rebuilt in 1954 with 32 stops. In 1998, Timothy Smith and Theodore Gilbert began a massive reconstruction of the organ. The current Smith & Gilbert Organ of 4 manuals, 54 ranks, and 3,084 pipes was dedicated on the Feast of Saint Cecilia, November 22, 1999.

Today we are experiencing something of an awakening within these old walls. Our numbers are increasing by 350 new households each year, and we continue to grow in our commitment to issues of peace, justice, and service to our neighbors, both near and far.

We’ve been right here on Belvidere Street, in the same building for over 125 years, but that does not mean that life here is stale, stagnant, or even predictable. We are proud to be entrusted with the legacy of Saint Cecilia Parish, where everything is the same, yet always changing; where we honor tradition while embracing the future; where God’s love makes all things new.

Take Home a Little White Book for Easter
In the narthex we still have few little white books for the fifty days of Eastertide. Take one home and spend just six minutes a day in reflection. This is a great way to celebrate this time of great rejoicing!

Good Shepherd Sunday
Let us pray in a special way for the members of our parish who are catechists in our children’s faith formation program. May the Lord continue to guide them as they partner with parents to help nurture the spiritual formation of the children they shepherd.

Attention Graduates!
We want to acknowledge and celebrate all our graduates this spring. Please email the names of the parishioners who are graduating from high school or college to Christine Burns at cburns@stceciliaboston.org. Please use the word "graduate" in the subject line. Feel free to include the school's name and the degree awarded.

PROTECTING GOD’S CHILDREN

VIRTUS Training
Sunday, April 30 | 1:00 p.m. | Community Room

VIRTUS is the umbrella term for a two-part training designed to keep children safe in the parish setting. The Archdiocese requires this two-part training of all volunteers and staff who have the potential for direct contact with children or the vulnerable due to their involvement in the parish. The first part, Protecting God’s Children (or PGC) is a training on how to recognize the signs and symptoms that a child is being abused and how to talk with children about these issues. The second part is a mandated reporter training. All parish staff and volunteers are mandated reporters and are required to attend this one-time training. Please plan to attend if you’ve not done so in the past and you intend to volunteer in the future. Also, please note that both parts will be covered in Sunday’s session and the training will be approximately 3 hours, including videos and group discussion. Help us officially registering for this course on April 30 at 1:00 p.m. on https://www.virtusonline.org/. By doing so, you will create a permanent record of your participation and completion of the training. If you are unable to register online, please join us anyway and come a few minutes early so you can be registered in the system. Thank you so much!

A Note Regarding Six O’Clock Mass
The last six o’clock Mass will be on May 7, 2023. This Mass will resume in September.

Welcome to the Lord’s Table!
Easter is the season of initiation, and therefore the very best time to celebrate First Holy Communion. We are delighted to have twenty-six youngsters receive communion for the first time on Saturday, May 13 at 11:00 a.m. Please keep these children in your prayer. We are also grateful to our second grade catechists, Mr. Mark Lippolt and Ms. Anna DeMare, who devote so much time and energy to their teaching.
SUPPORT WOMEN’S LUNCH PLACE THIS MOTHER’S DAY

Mother’s Day is approaching, and Women’s Lunch Place (WLP) has the perfect opportunity for you to honor the special women in your life while supporting women in need. For each $25 donation to WLP, you will receive a card designed by one of the shelter’s guests as a thank you. At Saint Cecilia, Mother’s Day cards will be sold in the narthex following the 9:30 and 11:30 liturgies this weekend. By purchasing Mother’s Day cards through their fundraiser, you help WLP provide a wide array of services for the most vulnerable women in our community, including healthy meals and individualized services that empower these women to make positive changes in their lives.

The cards are blank on the inside so they can also serve as a personal or "thank you" note. In addition to Mother’s Day cards, you can sponsor a breakfast for $300 or a day of fresh fruit for $150 in honor or memory of a meaningful person in your life.

This year’s Mother’s Day card was designed by Deirdre, who is a friendly and welcoming presence in the Women’s Lunch Place community. A traumatic childhood led Deirdre to self-medicating leading to a substance use disorder, but she has since found sobriety and stability at WLP’s shelter and advocacy center. Deirdre participates in WLP’s addiction recovery program (in partnership with Boston Medical Center), group therapy, and Therapeutic Expressions classes. In March, Deirdre partnered with local artist Janice Hayes-Cha to create a vibrant collage out of repurposed greeting cards.

For more information about this fundraiser, please contact Mark.Lippolt@gmail.com or you can order a card directly by visiting https://womenslunchplace.org/mothers-day. Thank you for supporting Women’s Lunch Place and for making this Mother’s Day a meaningful one for the special women in your life.

JOIN US FOR THE 2023 MOTHER’S DAY WALK FOR PEACE

Please join us on May 14 for the Louis D. Brown Peace Institute’s 27th Annual Mother’s Day Walk for Peace. The Institute was formed in 1996 by a Boston mother who turned her grief into action after her teenage son was murdered. The Institute’s goal is to empower survivors, Generation Peace and communities impacted by murder, trauma, grief and loss to cultivate cycles of peace and healing. Saint Cecilia Parish has supported the Institute’s essential work for many years, and this year, we have set a parish goal of $7,000 to contribute to the program’s mission through their annual Mother’s Day Walk for Peace. Your gift can have a lasting impact on the healing steps that move us toward peace through compassionate justice. Visit our team page (https://www.mothersdaywalk4peace.org/stcecilia) on the Mother’s Day Walk for Peace website to donate. You can also sign up to join our Walking Team for an unforgettable community experience. In particular, we are pleased to announce the program’s founder, Chaplain Clementina Chéry, will join us after the 11:30 Mass on April 30 for a special visit and a presentation in Classroom 2. We hope you can attend!
RETURNING CITIZENS MINISTRY

Please share about our returning citizens ministry. Previously known as our Prison and After Ministry, the Saint Cecilia Returning Citizens group meets from 5:30 to 8:00 p.m., every other Monday evening. During each meeting, a group of volunteer parishioners gathers to welcome men local to the Boston area who have experienced any local, state, and federal correctional institutions. Some are recently released, living in supervised settings, and others have already settled in the area. These Monday nights are designed to provide a safe space where men reentering society from prison or jail can feel welcomed and loved. Each evening, these men share their experiences and share a meal with our parishioners. Needless to say, the stories shared are very powerful and a blessing for all to hear.

We need help recruiting and inviting new members. If you know any men who could benefit from this kind of supportive conversation and fellowship, please let them know that they would be more than welcome. Questions? Please email Fr. Jim Shaughnessy, SJ, at shaughnessyjames1@gmail.com.

REMOTE FELLOWSHIP COMMUNITY'S MAY COFFEE HOUR

In their continuing effort to introduce Saint Cecilia’s various ministries to the Far-Flung Flock (FFF), the Remote Fellowship Community is pleased to welcome the Wisdom and Mature Spirituality Group to their May 7 online coffee hour. Since the beginning of the pandemic, the Wisdom and Mature Spirituality Group has been meeting weekly via Zoom to share their reflections on books and to “rediscover the joy of being Catholic in the second half of life.” The group’s meetings have been a wonderful way to deepen the community’s faith through transformative and healing conversation, prayer, and occasional social justice actions. The FFF looks forward to hearing members of the Wisdom Group share their journey. Learn how the second half of life can be full of transitions and change—happy and sad—and how this ministry has been surprised by grace each week.

Anyone is welcome to join this call! If you have registered or attended any online coffee hour in the past, you will automatically get the email with the link for May. The Zoom link will be emailed to the entire list a few days before the call. To join the FFF mailing list and get the link for this call, fill out this form: https://forms.gle/jUx6DqMLyMb2c2526

If you have any questions, please email Mary Ann Gallagher at gallaghercomms@gmail.com.

HUNGER AND HOMELESSNESS MINISTRY MAILING LIST

Over the past decade, Saint Cecilia Parish has developed a significant relationship with several Boston-based nonprofit agencies that focus on housing and homelessness as well as hunger relief and food insecurity. From facilitating the collection of food and supply donations for our partners to offering safe, limited-contact opportunities for volunteering, Saint Cecilia’s Hunger and Homelessness Ministry provides plenty of ways to pitch in for our neighbors in need. To get involved, or learn more about the work of this important ministry, please contact Mark Lippolt at Mark.Lippolt@gmail.com to join the mailing list.

CARE-TAKERS SUPPORT GROUP

Calling all parishioners who visit the sick, the elderly, or the homebound! Are you visiting people as part of a hospital or hospice volunteer group or through the CARES ministry and feel that you would benefit from peer support? We are considering starting a parishioner-led group to meet virtually, in person, or on a hybrid basis (likely once a month) to build spiritual connection and share experiences. Anyone who attends Saint Cecilia in person or virtually is welcome. If you are interested, send your thoughts to aerusso2015@gmail.com. Our best, Silvina Ibanez, Bob Sances, and Amy Russo.

DID YOU KNOW?

At Saint Cecilia, we’re committed to keeping our community safe. This year, we had 27 parishioners and staff members participate in Active Shooter Response Training and 19 parishioners and staff members participate in Adult and Pediatric First Aid/CPR/AED training.

PREVIOUSLY KNOWN AS OUR PRISON AND AFTER MINISTRY

Previously known as our Prison and After Ministry, the Saint Cecilia Returning Citizens group meets from 5:30 to 8:00 p.m., every other Monday evening. Support Our Nonprofit Partners

Spring is traditionally the time of year when the majority of the nonprofit agencies Saint Cecilia supports through our Hunger & Homelessness Ministry have their most critical fundraisers. This is true again in 2023, except that, with COVID seemingly winding down, everyone is returning to in-person events.

OUR ADULT FAITH FORMATION COMMISSION NEEDS YOUR INPUT!

The Saint Cecilia Adult Faith Formation Commission (AFFC) provides a range of impactful in-person and virtual parish events throughout the year. Past programming has included a monthly “Faith & Film Series” as well as special guest speaker events, such as last October’s, “An Evening with Br. Guy Consolmagno, SJ,” an enlightening presentation and discussion on faith and science with the Director of the Vatican Observatory and world-renowned astronomer. Looking ahead, the AFFC would like to hear from the parish community on ways to create new programming that is current, inspirational, and accessible. Whether you have attended an event in the past or would be interested in doing so in the future—either locally or from across the globe—the AFFC would love to hear from you! Please take a moment to fill out a two-minute survey by scanning this QR code—it’s fast and easy. If you have any questions, please email Scott MacDonald, Director of Faith Formation and Parish Visibility, at smacdonald@stceciliaboston.org. Thank you for your consideration!

SAINT CECILIA PARISH

50 DAYS FOR OUR DELIGHT

We spend forty days preparing for Easter, and then celebrate Easter as if it’s a single day. But Easter isn’t just a day, it’s a season. It’s not only a celebration, but an invitation to joy.
We are in the middle of Eastertide (or Easter Season, or Easter Time or Paschal Tide—all of them work!). This is a period of fifty days from Easter Sunday to Pentecost Sunday. It’s a time to remember that Jesus wasn’t just a human story, but that he spent time appearing to his disciples and preparing them for Pentecost. This is an extended time, then, to joyfully celebrate the resurrection. After all, the resurrection changes everything. St. Paul even writes, “If Christ has not been raised, then our preaching is in vain and your faith is in vain” (1 Corinthians 15:14). Easter is a big deal. Consider the words of Pope John Paul II said, “Do not abandon yourselves to despair. We are the Easter people and Easter has come into our song.”
Easter is about joy. Not just the joy of new life in the resurrection, but the more joy you can experience through living a life that allows you to be a part of the resurrection. Join us live on the Saint Cecilia Facebook page or via Zoom. Liturgies last approximately half an hour.
Email wharmandliterate@gmail.com for details.
“The world when seen through a little child’s eyes, greatly resembles paradise.” – Ralph Waldo Emerson

My eyes have never been good. I got fitted for my first pair of glasses for nearsightedness in the fourth grade, which was revelatory: The world became so crisp. I graduated to contact lenses in college. I had to add reading glasses in middle age. Now I wear bifocals and have been told that cataract surgery is in my future. Weirdly, a result of that surgery may be that I will no longer need glasses. That feels like a full circle.

But I am no longer that fourth-grader, so looking at the world through the eyes of a child does not come easily to me. Jesus tells us to become like little children if we want to follow him to the kingdom of heaven (Mt 18:3), but I am ridiculously far from childhood. And as I approach old age, I don’t want to become literally like a child. I actively fear the return of childlike dependence on someone for my physical care, specifically the intimate kind of caring I did for my dad and mom. I want to remain self-sufficient, considering the world through the eyes of an independent adult. How good of God, then, to make me a grandma, so that I can’t help but observe life’s journey through a beloved child’s eyes.

From the moment of her birth, my granddaughter has retaught me one of the gifts of the Holy Spirit that we learn at Confirmation: a sense of wonder and awe. As adults we feel those big feelings mostly when we encounter big things: the Pacific Ocean, the Grand Canyon, the mighty forces of nature’s storms, the photos from the moon. But when you spend the day with a child, you get to note the fascinating aspects of small things. I watch my 11-month-old granddaughter give her total focus to picking up a squashed raspberry with pincerlike fingers or finding the tag on a fuzzy stuffed lamb. She is not in a rush. And neither am I. She smiles broadly every time she sneezes. Every time. She makes a sneeze seem like a marvelous event.

Once you let go of your pretensions to adulthood and try to see God’s creation through a child’s eyes, you may also begin to hear with a child’s ears or feel with a child’s hands, smell with a child’s nose or taste with a child’s tongue. A dog’s bark, a piano’s chord? Wonderful. The feel and smell and taste of bread fresh from the bakery? Incredible. Fantastic. Give me more bread, less angst about the problems of the world.

I’m not sure why a grandchild moves me to contemplate God’s creation more than mothering my four children ever did. Maybe the sleeplessness and hardworking breasts and unending demands of motherhood are too immediate to allow for much contemplative time. Now my daughter meets these urgencies for her daughter, and I sit back and watch the miracle happen. It turns out that my advice is largely useless anyway, as demonstrated by my recent suggestion of rice cereal for introducing solid foods to a baby. My daughter and my niece, also a new mother, looked at me sadly.

“Not rice,” said one.

The other nodded. “Arsenic” was all she said.

They nodded together at this common new-mother knowledge.

Wait, what?

Apparently rice contains traces of arsenic, an unfortunate fact unknown back in the dark ages of mothering. I stick to reveling in each new discovery my granddaughter makes: sitting up, crawling, pulling herself to standing, ever closer to walking. Her little dynamic body is in constant motion, figuring, assessing, experimenting, growing. She trusts her body’s possibilities. She trusts completely in her world’s goodness and stability. I know better about the outside world that awaits her; still, I want her trust never to be broken by anyone or anything.

“When I was a child,” writes St. Paul in his first letter to the Corinthians, “I used to talk as a child, think as a child, reason as a child; when I became a man, I put aside childish things” (13:11). With apologies to St. Paul, who was never a grandpa, maybe that’s our problem. Maybe putting aside childish things boxes us into that jaded, cynical, unobservant mindset that seems to accompany adulthood. Sometimes I look back and wonder if I was sleepwalking through all those years of parenting my young children. With my eyes only half-open, I worried about illnesses and accidents and every tragedy that could befall my children but moved through the everyday not quite conscious to wonder and awe. I was relieved when they safely outgrew the baby stage, the toddler stage, the elementary school age, when they survived the awkward adolescent stage. They made it through driving, through high school, through college, safely launched into the world. Then they were adults, battling their own adult challenges, working, marrying, having their own children. They are concerned with big things, with climate change, with democracy, with inequality, with injustice, with making a difference. Having solved little, I have handed over the big worries to them. Now my focus is shrinking.

Where am I going with this? I’m wandering. I’m meandering. I’m feeling my way to the light. I’m going to the place of little relevance known as grandparenting, arriving where the joy of small things with small people is everything. I’m on the road to nowhere, to quote the Talking Heads, and that means everything to me. We like to say that God is in the details, but when I look with the wide-open eyes of a child, I understand the stripped-down theology that God is the details, and the details are amazing. God's hand winds the lovely cycle of mother-daughter-mother and we turn with it, full of wonder and awe, full of the grace that greatly resembles paradise.

AN UPDATE FROM CATHOLIC CHARITIES BOSTON

Last month, Marjean Perhot, Vice President of Refugee and Immigrant Services at Catholic Charities wrote to Saint Cecilia and provided an update about the effort to welcome and resettle refugees. Thanks to the support of our parishioners and that of other donors, parishes, synagogues, churches, and non-profit groups, Catholic Charities Boston was able to resettle 171 individuals as part of the US government’s Operation Allies Welcome.

Refugee services have been a vital part of helping families and individuals who have fled war, persecution, and other hardships to establish roots in the United States. In particular, recent efforts to welcome Afghan evacuees have been complicated and all-encompassing. Finding housing, jobs, and schools for the children, and providing English language classes for adults has taken time and substantial financial support. Many Afghan families have reached a sense of stability, but many remain in legal limbo while waiting for their asylum cases to be decided. Catholic Charities’ commitment to supporting the Afghan evacuees has and will continue long after their plight has faded from the headlines.

Catholic Charities’ Refugee and Immigrant Services Department works closely with national and local partners to provide critical support to refugees from all corners of the world. In specific, the department is honored to be one of six agencies participating in Welcome Circles for Ukrainians, a pilot program of the U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops Migration and Refugee Services (USCCB/MRS). Volunteers from parishes, communities of faith, or organizations provide financial support, guidance, and community connections to help Ukrainian families resettle in Massachusetts. Nine Welcome Circles have come together, helping a total of nineteen Ukrainian humanitarian parolees with everything from basic needs to finding employment to helping their children enroll in school. The year ahead will be brighter for many because of supporters like the generous parishioners of our parish. Thank you for your contributions!
