HOLY, HOLY | Mass of Christ the Savior
Dan Schutte

MEMORIAL ACCLAMATION | Mass of Christ the Savior
Dan Schutte
THE LORD'S PRAYER

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name; thy kingdom come; thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us; and lead us not into temptation but deliver us from evil. For the kingdom, the power, and the glory are yours now and forever. Amen.

SPIRITUAL COMMUNION

It is a long-held Catholic belief that when circumstances prevent one from receiving Holy Communion, it is possible to make an “Act of Spiritual Communion.” When we are unable to be physically present at the celebration of the Eucharist, Pope Francis invites Catholics to say this prayer as a source of grace. We can be assured that when we express our desire to receive Jesus in the Eucharist, God will be with us spiritually in a special way. Here is an Act of Spiritual Communion that we encourage you to pray as you participate in our live-streamed liturgies:

ACT OF SPIRITUAL COMMUNION

Loving Jesus,
I believe that you are present in the Most Holy Sacrament of the Eucharist.
I love you above all things, and I desire to receive you into my soul.
Since I cannot at this moment receive you sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart.
I embrace you as if you were already there and unite myself wholly to you.
Never permit me to be separated from you.
Refrain

To this meal and sacrifice, Lord, you draw us near:

Taste of God’s abundant grace for all gathered here.

In your love you summon us; broken now we come. By your body and your blood, heal us, make us one.

Verse 1

1. May this meal be medicine for the weak, that we may love as you have loved. At this harvest of goodness, may we feast in unity.

Verse 2

2. May this feast bring healing for the poor, that we may serve as you have served. At this table of justice, may we serve in unity.

D.C.
Concluding Rites

• The Lord be with you.
  All: And with your spirit.

• May almighty God bless you, the Father, (+) and the Son and the Holy Spirit.
  All: Amen.

• Go forth, the Mass is ended.

  All: Thanks be to God.

Welcome to Saint Cecilia Parish, a Roman Catholic community that gathers day by day, week by week, to know and make known the grace of God. By means of this abundant grace, we enjoy a diverse and close-knit parish family—young, old, rich, poor, of various ethnic origins and differing backgrounds. From our extraordinary music program to a growing children’s faith formation program; from the various liturgical ministries to the many opportunities for social outreach that the parish provides, Saint Cecilia is a vibrant community of faith, centered on prayer and worship that tries to keep the Gospel close to heart and to live by Jesus’ teachings.

Saint Cecilia Parish was established in 1888. At that time the Back Bay section of Boston along Commonwealth Avenue and Beacon Street was the residential section of the Yankee aristocracy. The maids (“Irish working out girls”) and coachmen who served these residents had long requested a church of their own. When Archbishop Williams granted their request and carved the parish from the territory of the Cathedral, they built a magnificent church out of their meager earnings. Our church building resides on the ancestral homeland of the Pawtucket and Massachusett tribal nations.

The church was dedicated on April 22, 1894. Its architecture is Romanesque, XII Century Norman. The main altar, notable for its massive simplicity, was carved from a single block of white Carrara marble. The painting in the center reredos is a reproduction of da Vinci’s The Last Supper, and the dome above is an array of 24K gold rosettes.

For the sixtieth anniversary celebration in 1954, a massive renovation project was undertaken. During this renovation, a statue of Pope Saint Pius X (canonized that same year) was imported from Italy and placed on the right side of the sanctuary. Above the statue are paintings from Pius’ life. On the left side is a statue of Saint Patrick, principal patron of the Archdiocese of Boston, and above it are three scenes from his life.

Fourteen circular and sixteen square panels adorn the nave and arches of the church. The square panels are decorated with the symbols of Our Lady taken from the Litany of Loreto and the circular ones with symbols taken from the lives of the apostles. The great window of the Assumption—framed by the two oak cases of the organ—was installed in 1954 (the Marian Year) in spaces originally designed for windows but not until then used.

The original organ of 24 stops was built in 1902 by the Hutchings-Votey Organ Company, Opus 1465, and was rebuilt in 1954 with 32 stops. In 1998, Timothy Smith and Theodore Gilbert began a massive reconstruction of the organ. The current Smith & Gilbert Organ of 4 manuals, 54 ranks, and 3,084 pipes was dedicated on the Feast of Saint Cecilia, November 22, 1999.

Today we are experiencing something of an awakening within these old walls. Our numbers are increasing by 350 new households each year, and we continue to grow in our commitment to issues of peace, justice, and service to our neighbors, both near and far.

We’ve been right here on Belvidere Street, in the same building for over 125 years, but that does not mean that life here is stale, stagnant, or even predictable. We are proud to be entrusted with the legacy of Saint Cecilia Parish, where everything is the same, yet always changing; where we honor tradition while embracing the future; where God’s love makes all things new.

ALL ARE WELCOME MASS
Celebrate Pride Month at Saint Cecilia
Friday, June 9 | 6:00 p.m.

"God is Father and he does not disown any of his children. And 'the style' of God is closeness, mercy, and tenderness. Along this path, you will find God."
—Pope Francis responding to Fr. James Martin's question, "What would you say is the most important thing for LGBTQ people to know about God?"

Saint Cecilia Rainbow Ministry, in collaboration with the Paulist Center Community; St. Anthony Shrine and the Franciscan friars; Blessed Trinity Parish, Westford/Littleton; Saint Joseph Parish, Boston; and Saint Susanna Parish, Dedham invite you to honor our LGBTQ siblings at an ALL ARE WELCOME Mass at Saint Cecilia on Friday, June 9 at 6:00 p.m. Help commemorate the beginning of Pride Month by celebrating the unique diversity of God’s children at this liturgy. Following the Mass, there will be a reception in the Parish Café.

"Jesus does not prefer exclusive, selective places. He looks for places untouched by love, untouched by hope. Those uncomfortable places are where he wants to go and he asks us to prepare his way...All of us know people who are lonely, troubled and in need: they are abandoned tabernacles. Jesus became bread broken for our sake; in turn, he asks us to give ourselves to others, to live no longer for ourselves but for one another. The Eucharist is translat-ed into life when we pass beyond ourselves to those all around us."
—Pope Francis, Corpus Christi, 2018

DONATIONS FOR DORCHESTER FOOD PANTRIES

Now that our Faith Formation classes have ended for the academic year and with summer approaching, many of the families that have been faithful donors to our collection of food items for the Catholic Charities and Mary Ann Brett pantries will be away until September. We hope that you will consider participating in this important ministry during the summer months so that the volume of our donated food remains strong. The local economy might have improved for some of us, but the working poor and unemployed continue to face enormous economic challenges—especially in light of rising food prices. Saint Cecilia has committed to providing these items to the food pantries: Cheerios or cornflakes, peanut butter, white flour pasta and spaghetti, macaroni and cheese, canned tuna fish, canned chicken breast, cooking oil, and tomato sauce. While any canned or shelf-stable items are appreciated, it is particularly helpful when parishioners can help with the staples listed above. Unfortunately, we cannot accept donations of baked items or produce in the narthex.

A REQUEST FROM CATHOLIC CHARITIES

For over 100 years, Sunset Point Camp has provided a dream vacation at the seashore to over 40,000 low-income, at-risk children aged 6-13 from Greater Boston without regard for their race, nationality, or religious affiliation. Nearly 450 city-based boys and girls travel to Hull, Massachusetts each summer for a one or two-week overnight camp experience that allows them to enjoy fresh air, learn new talents, receive academic summer support, and simply have fun! Sunset Point Camp is operated by our friends at Catholic Charities and they need donations of the following items for kids at the camp:

- Sunblock (the higher the SPF the better!)
- Bug spray
- Flip flops (boys/girls ages 6-15)
- Underwear (boys/girls ages 6-15)

The next time you're shopping or on Amazon.com, please consider picking up some of the above items and dropping them in the labeled plastic bins in the narthex. Thank you!

HUNGER & HOMELESSNESS MINISTRY: DRIVERS NEEDED

Each weekend parishioners have the opportunity to pick up donated meat, dairy products, prepared foods, and produce from four local supermarkets and deliver it to either Catholic Charities’ Haitian Multi-Service Center in Dorchester or the Huntington Y’s Families in Transition program. In addition, we deliver parish donations to two Dorchester pantries: the Mary Ann Brett Pantry and the Catholic Charities pantry at the Yawkey Center. This vital ministry takes place at 8:00 a.m. every Saturday and Sunday morning and on Sundays can be completed in time to attend or watch the 9:30 a.m. parish Mass. We need drivers for all the Saturdays and Sundays in June and July. Please email Mark.Lippolt@gmail.com if you would like more information about how you can help.

THANK YOU TO ALL WHO JOINED US FOR OUR NEW PARISHIONER/ MINISTRY APPRECIATION PARTY!
There is a wonderful Danish film called Babette’s Feast. Babette was a French woman who ran a high-class restaurant in Paris. She had to flee from Paris at a time of civil unrest and eventually landed by boat on the coast of Jutland, in Denmark. She was taken in as the servant of a rather austere evangelical pastor and his two daughters who ministered to a small community of believers. Even though she was a marvelous cook, she prepared the simple fish dishes that they had been used to and expected. Some years passed and the pastor died, and she continued cooking for the two sisters who lived very frugal lives.

One day, word came through to Babette that she had won the equivalent of today’s lotto. She decided to spend the money on preparing the most lavish meal imaginable for the two sisters and the little community of believers to whom they ministered. She quietly ordered from France all the ingredients she needed for the meal. The resulting feast, Babette’s feast, was like nothing this little community in Jutland had ever seen before. The whole community came together in the sisters’ house and there they dined like royalty. Members of the community who had been bickering with one another a short time previously were delighted to be in each other’s company, as the best of wine flowed and the finest of food was eaten. There was one outsider to this little religious community present, a rather debonair Danish officer. He was a man of the world; he had dined in the restaurant that Babette once ran in Paris. He fully appreciated the quality of every item of food and drink that was on the table. He was so moved that he stood up to speak. He quoted from one of the Psalms, ‘Mercy and faithfulness have met; justice and peace have embraced. Faithfulness shall spring from the earth and justice look down from heaven’. He recognized the sacred dimension of this meal which everyone was relishing so much. Babette looked on from the side, exhausted but contended at this celebration of communion over which she presided.

At the heart of that feast was an act of love. Babette spent her money, her time, her energy, her gifts, to make the feast possible. The gospels suggest that Jesus shared many meals with people during his ministry. The most highly charged meal Jesus had was with his disciples on the night before he died. At the heart of all the meals Jesus shared with people was an act of love; at table Jesus was revealing the hospitable love of God. That was especially true of the last meal Jesus shared with his disciples. At the heart of that meal was an extraordinary act of love. When Jesus took the bread and said, ‘this is my body’, and when he took the wine and said, ‘this is my blood’, and when he told his disciples to take and eat, to take and drink, he was giving himself totally to his disciples. The body and blood of someone is the totality of their being. Jesus was giving his whole life, his very self, to his disciples, at that meal. When Jesus instructed his disciples to do this in memory of him, he was showing that he wanted to give himself fully and entirely to his disciples in every generation.

In response to the command of Jesus to do this in memory of him, the church from its earliest beginnings has repeated the words and deeds of Jesus at the last supper. As Paul says in today’s second reading from his first letter to the Corinthians, written a little over twenty years after the last supper, “The blessing cup that we bless is a communion with the blood of Christ, and the bread that we break is a communion with the body of Christ.” The act of love which was at the heart of the last supper was the same act of love that Jesus displayed by his death on the cross. In giving his total self to his disciples in the form of bread and wine, Jesus was symbolically anticipating the total gift of himself that he would give to all humanity on the cross the next day. It is that self-gift of Jesus on the cross that is at the heart of every Eucharist. That is why Paul goes on to say in that first letter to the Corinthians, ‘As often as you eat his bread and drink the cup, you proclaim the Lord’s death until he comes’.

The feast of the Eucharist which we celebrate today is the feast of Jesus’ self-giving love. To eat the Lord’s body and to drink his blood at the Eucharist is to enter into the mystery of his self-emptying love. The life and death of Jesus were absolute gifts and it is those gifts we receive at every Eucharist. In receiving this gift, we are sent from the Eucharist to give as we have received, to love as we have been loved. In entering into communion with the Lord in the Eucharist, we commit to being in communion with each other. The Eucharist reminds us that we are bound to one another and to all humanity. We leave Mass ready to live out in concrete ways that communion we share with each other.

~ Rev. Martin Hogan is a priest of the Diocese of Dublin. He was a scripture lecturer in the Mater Dei Institute of Education for over thirty years.

This year’s readings for Corpus Christi focus on the Eucharist. We are reminded that God cared for the Israelites by providing manna, and by receiving Holy Communion, we are spiritually fed and united in each other. In the Gospel of John, Jesus notes that the Eucharist is truly his Body and Blood, and gives us life. Here are highlights to consider:

- Remembering God’s blessings: In the first reading from Deuteronomy, the Israelites are reminded to remember how God led them through the wilderness and provided for them. This is a warning against forgetting God’s goodness and becoming prideful in our own abilities and possessions. We are called to recognize that all that we have comes from God, and we must be grateful for his provision.

- Trusting in God’s word: The passage also emphasizes the importance of trusting in God’s word rather than material things. This is a call to focus on the spiritual rather than the material, recognizing that our true sustenance comes from God’s word. We must rely on God and his promises, rather than placing our trust in material things that will ultimately fade away.

- The Eucharist as a sacrament of unity: The second reading describes the Eucharist as a sacrament that creates a spiritual unity among believers. Through partaking in the consecrated bread and wine—the Body and Blood of Christ—we become united as one Body of Christ. This is a reminder of the importance of community and the role that the Eucharist plays in creating a sense of belonging among believers.

- The true presence of Christ in the Eucharist: The belief in the true presence of Christ in the bread and wine of the Eucharist is a central belief of the Catholic Church. The second reading emphasizes that the bread and wine are not merely symbols, but are truly the Body and Blood of Christ. This belief is foundational to the Catholic faith, and is a reminder of the depth of Christ’s sacrifice for us.

- The necessity of the Eucharist for eternal life: The Gospel reading from John emphasizes the necessity of consuming the Body and Blood of Christ for eternal life. Jesus teaches that his flesh and blood are true food and true drink, and those who eat and drink them will abide in him and have eternal life. This is a reminder of the centrality of the Eucharist to the Catholic faith, and the importance of receiving the sacrament for our spiritual nourishment and growth.

Joining Our Community
We're happy that you're with us! Our community offers a warm, spiritual home for a diverse group of Catholics. We come from many neighborhoods in and around Boston, but also have long distance parishioners from around the country and around the world. If you are local, please introduce yourself to a staff member or drop in for coffee on Sunday. We invite both local and long distance individuals and families to fill out a new parishioner form on our website. No matter what your background or location, please know that you are always welcome at Saint Cecilia.
