Please note that everyone who participates in a parish ministry must complete a CORI background screening prior to beginning ministry and annually after that.

All adult volunteers who may be around youth, including everyone who is involved in a liturgical ministry, must complete Protecting God's Children training within the first 60 days of ministry.

All adult volunteers working directly with youth must complete Protecting God's Children training within the first 30 days of ministry.

Volunteers can sign up for PGC training by going to www.VIRTUSonline.org and following the instructions. Select "Boston, MA (Archdiocese)", fill in the required information then it will give you a series of trainings from which to choose. Please call the Office of Child Advocacy at 617-746-5994 if you need assistance.

All volunteers must read and agree to comply with both the Code of Conduct for Volunteers and the Child Protection Policy for the Archdiocese of Boston. They can be found at <https://www.bostoncatholic.org/protecting-children-word-welcome> Printed copies are available at the reception desk.

Saint Cecilia Parish films liturgies and parish events for our online livestream. Photographs are also often taken at parish liturgies and events and are sometimes used in the weekly bulletin, on the parish website, in the weekly Bulletin Blast, in the weekly slideshow, and on the parish's social media platforms. By completing and submitting this form, you are hereby giving your consent to being filmed and/or photographed, with the full knowledge that the parish has the right to record and distribute videos and photographs in which you may appear. You also agree to notify the parish if you decide to withdraw this consent.
